"FIGHT GERMANS IN FRANCE OR FIGHT THEM HERE IN 5 YEARS"

R. M. HUGHES GIVES AN ELOQUENT ADDRESS

"This is no Time for Quibbling", Said He "Be An American Now or Get Out of the Country"

Patriotic Meeting Filled Opera House Paying Tribute to Young Men Called to Country's Service

HIGH LIGHTS IN HUGHES' ORATION

"German autocracy has challenged American democracy."
"I have heard the pacifist say that he would not fight Germany on foreign soil. Let me tell you that if you do not fight in France now, you will have to fight in America in the next five years."
"That man is not an American who is for the kaiser. He should not be here. He should be in the red line of Prussian trenches."
"There can be no party lines in this war."
"The brutality of Prussian autocratic oppression must be crushed down even if the viper has to be fought in the heart of German autocracy, Berlin itself."
"America seeks no indemnities, she asks only that the world be made safe for democracy."

the rise of the French republic from the ashes of the monarchy, the history of America in revolutionary days, the work of the pioneer and the missionary from the early days to the men and women of 1861 and 1865.

There were pacifists in the civil war too. There were men also who gave up home, family, friends, fortune, life itself to stand behind Lincoln as we now stand behind Woodrow Wilson.

The heart of America was tried in the Spanish-American war. It marked the entry of the nation in the broad field of international politics.

The Boxer movement also proved the democracy of America when to China was remitted the Boxer indemnity of millions.

Democracy's cause now was to crush down the brutality of Prussian oppression, even if the viper had to be fought in the heart of German autocracy, Berlin itself.

Every one had a part to play in this great war. German autocracy had challenged American democracy. The stars and stripes now flew as a symbol of world democracy.

America sought no indemnities. She fought to make the world safe for democracy. And the fight would be to victory with faith in God.

He paid a deep tribute to the mothers of the land who gave their sons, their all, to the cause.

Patriotism meant meeting one's duty. There was work at the front such as was to be done by the boys Brainerd was honoring this evening. There was also much to do for those who remained at home.

War was a serious business. God save the man who posed as a pacifist when the casualty lists were read. Brainerd had socialists, said Mr. Hughes. He was glad to see that John Spargo, one of the best socialist writers, had marked out the doctrine that the socialist should not obstruct the government in its work. In this war, said Mr. Hughes, there can be no party, only red blooded Americans.

In nations as in individuals only character and principle should rule. He closed with a glowing tribute to the soldier boys of Brainerd and the county who would be found doing their full duty standing back of the president in the defense of the ideals of America.

Applause marked the telling points made by Mr. Hughes, and he stirred Brainerd people to the heights of patriotic fervor.

Rev. M. L. Hostager's invocation was a prayer for divine guidance and aid.

Mayor R. A. Beise in simple language deep with feeling said the people assembled pledged anew their loyalty to country, flag and president, that the meeting was a tribute to the boys who have gone and who are going to the services of the flag.

The Brainerd city band furnished stirring music and they played remarkably well. In the national airs the orchestration was especially superb.

The flag drill was given by girls waving flags and two carried a large American flag. They had been taught by Mrs. Clyde E. Parker. Those taking part were Lucille, Katherine and Eleanor Nolan, Virginia Casey, Netha

On April 6, 1917, said Mr. Hughes, there was enacted a scene in Washington which changed not only the history of the country, but revolutionized the world. The politician and voter ceased to exist. Shoulder to shoulder as patriots there stood behind Woodrow Wilson, not as a democratic leader, but as Woodrow Wilson, the president, a united nation when the declaration was announced that a state of war with Germany existed.

The nations of old looked to the United States for the exemplification of democracy.

In broad strokes Mr. Hughes painted the picture of progress in the past,

Shortly after Brainerd, Crow Wing county and central Minnesota had experienced its first earthquake tremor the Dispatch reporter wired in the news to Georgetown University, Washington, D. C., where there is maintained a set of delicate seismographic instruments, tuned, it has often been asserted, to register earthquake tremors within a radius of 10,000 miles.

It did seem appropriate in a way to have scientific instruments to back up the earthquake story first sent out of Brainerd and scoffed at and joked at by some newspapers to which it was reported.

In this instance, however, science didn't have a large enough ear drum to catch the rumble in central Minnesota. This message was received from Georgetown University:

Washington, D. C., Sept. 4, 1917.
No earth tremors recorded here Monday.

F. A. TONDORS.

Scientifically, there have therefore been no tremors in central Minnesota. Which also goes to prove that things can happen and do happen of which science fails to get a line on, while ordinary mortals who certainly tell when the dishes rattle off the shelf, when the chimney is cracked by an upheaval like that of Monday.

Minneapolis heard the news of the quake with doubts as to its genuineness. Down there they made a run to the State University to see if such a thing could really happen.

Warren Upham of the state historical society and professors in the geological department of the University of Minnesota said last night that no earthquake has ever been recorded in Minnesota since the coming of the whites and perhaps long before that.

"There is no reason why Minnesota should not have an earthquake," Mr. Upham said, "but the fact remains that we have been singularly exempted."

Because there is no seismograph in the state, Mr. Upham explained that it cannot be definitely said that no tremors from distant shocks have never occurred here.

It is known, however, that there has never been one heavy enough to be noticeable without the aid of the instrument.

Faulty limestone rock formation under the subsoil between St. Paul and Hastings indicates that in prehistoric times this part of the country was visited by a heavy shock, is his belief. It may have happened a thousand or more years ago, he said.

The Dispatch gave the full area of the disturbance, from Wadena to Aitkin and from St. Cloud to Bemidji. It marked in which the tremors were most manifest in an area of over 1,000 square miles, covering five counties.

A day after it was experienced Minneapolis awoke to the fact that people had felt the tremors down there.

Persons in several sections of Minneapolis today reported they felt an earthquake shock which was reported from towns in central Minnesota Monday.

W. E. J. Deming, 715 Sixth avenue South, Minneapolis, said he felt his house tremble about 3:30 p. m. Pictures on the wall shook, curtains

CHICAGO MAYOR

City Council Approves Action of Governor Lowden.

SESSION PROVES TURBULENT

William H. Thompson and His Supporters Fail to Prevent Adoption of Resolution Endorsing State Executive for Refusing to Allow People's Council to Hold Convention.

Chicago, Sept. 5.—Chicago's city council, sitting as a committee of the whole, at the end of a turbulent four-hour special session, adopted a resolution praising Governor Frank O. Lowden for his action in overriding Mayor William Hale Thompson by refusing permission to the People's Council for Democracy and Peace Terms to meet in Illinois and urging the state's chief executive to prevent any meetings in the future which may be inimical to public safety or disloyal or treasonable.

Mayor Thompson and his friends in the council made a stubborn parliamentary fight to prevent the adoption of the resolution.

Mayor Thompson at one time urged the aldermen to take a recess, but the majority insisted on remaining in session until the resolution had been adopted.

Alderman Michaelson led the opposition to the resolution and resorted to every possible technicality to delay proceedings. Alderman Toman and half a dozen others spoke for the majority and scored the action of the mayor in encouraging pacifist agitation in Chicago.

There was hearty applause from the gallery when Toman invited Alderman Michaelson, one of the mayor's staunch supporters, to go to Germany and join the kaiser openly.

Alderman Claims Loyalty.

Alderman Michaelson asserted he is a patriot and cited as proof that a relative of his enlisted in a former war in which the United States was engaged.

"But," Michaelson said, "the people are in grave doubt whether the United States is fighting for a just cause or not."

"Say, who do you want to win this war anyway, the United States or the kaiser?" Alderman Bowler demanded. Mayor Thompson interrupted unceremoniously at that point to suggest a recess for a couple of hours.

"Have you any objection to this resolution being adopted?" Alderman Bowler inquired of the mayor.

"Gentlemen," the latter replied, "you are about to decide whether the Constitution has been violated. The matter should be considered very carefully."

"Oh, we'll take the responsibility, all right," Alderman Bowler replied.

In swearing in the federal grand jury for September Judge Evans indicated that indictments may be returned against persons in connection with anti-war agitation. In addressing the jury he said:

"In this locality and vicinity there is especially work for you. The people look to you to return indictments against persons who are traitorous to the government or who are untrue or false to their country."

MAY NOT ENFORCE STATUTE

Hinted Sunday Hunting in Minnesota Will Be Allowed.

St. Paul, Sept. 5.—The hunting season for small game will open Sept. 16, despite the recent ruling of the attorney general that hunting on that day would be in violation of the Sunday law and consequently game could not be taken legally on that day, according to unofficial reports at the capital. Protests that enforcement of the Sunday law would operate simply to the advantage of sportsmen who can spare time to go hunting on business days gave rise to a report that state game wardens will not arrest violators of the Sunday law. Commissioner Carlos Avery of the state game and fish department could not be reached.

Doctor Says Nuxated Iron Will Increase Strength of Delicate
People 100% in Ten Days

In many instances—Persons have suffered untold agony for years doctoring for nervous weakness, stomach, liver or kidney disease or some other ailment when their real trouble was lack of iron in the blood—How to tell.

New York, N. Y.—In a recent discourse Dr. E. Sauer, a Boston physician who has studied widely both in this country and in great European medical institutions, said: "If you were to make an actual blood test on all people who are ill you would probably be greatly astonished at the exceedingly large number who lack iron and who are ill for no other reason than the lack of iron. The moment iron is supplied all their multitude of dangerous symptoms disappear. Without iron the blood at once loses the power to change food into living tissue and therefore nothing you eat does you any good; you don't get the strength out of it. Your food merely passes through your system like corn through a mill with the rollers so wide apart that the mill can't grind. As a result of this continuous blood and nerve starvation, people become generally weakened, nervous and all run down and frequently develop all sorts of conditions. One is too thin; another is burdened with unhealthy fat; some are so weak they can hardly walk; some think they have dyspepsia, kidney or liver trouble; some can not sleep at night, others are sleepy and tired all day; some fussy and irritable; some skinny and bloodless, but all lack physical power and endurance. In such cases, it is worse than foolishness to take stimulating medicines or narcotic drugs, which only whip up your sagging vital powers for the moment, maybe at the expense of your life later on. No matter what any one tells you, if you are not strong and well you owe it to yourself to make the following

THE ENGLISH SPARROW

(By Rev. Wm. Lloyd Crist)

Recently a friend of mine, who is an enthusiastic and ardent bird lover, wrote me, asking if there was one good thing I could say in regard to the English sparrow, and I replied "Yes, his persistency!"

To begin with, he is not an English bird, but his original home is Russia. Over sixty years ago, some lunatic who was visiting in England, foolishly imported a few pairs of them to friends in New York city, and they have increased so rapidly that they are one of the worst pests America has to deal with.

It is guilty, among other things, of destroying many of our native birds. Having come from the cold north, it does not migrate in winter as our native birds do, therefore when spring-time comes and our migratory birds return, the sparrow considers them interlopers, and kills them.

The bluebird, one of our most valuable orchard birds, finds upon arriving in the spring, all holes and boxes already pre-empted by the sparrow. The same is true of the Wrens and Purple Martins. Several of our birds especially the Baltimore Oriole, arrives as the fruit trees are blossoming, and from those blossoms he makes over a hundred meals a day, from the insects and insect eggs hidden in the blossoms. But he very often must look elsewhere for material to build his nest, for he fails to find enough string in the neighborhood to line his nest, for Mr. Sparrow has carried them all away.

There are a number of remedies suggested to rid us of them, some of which I consider foolish. While living in a certain state, I learned there was a reward of three cents per head being paid for sparrows. The statesman that would enact laws like that should have a guardian, to say the least. They were usually killed by boys, who could not distinguish between our male song sparrows and the male English sparrow, without hearing their voices, therefore the state was rapidly being denuded of one of its loveliest birds and sweetest singers. Another remedy suggested is poisoning by strychnine or arsenic. I do not approve of this either, as other birds will also be poisoned thereby.

One of my old bird friends suggests the following, which I think the most satisfactory. He says:

"When the people shall be fully informed as to the results that will follow the ever increasing number of English sparrows, then enlightened action will be taken. Bird wardens will be appointed for certain territory as is now indicated to mail carriers. Their duty will be to destroy carefully every English sparrow's nest in their jurisdiction on the first day of March, and then again on the fifteenth day of March, and so on during March, April, May, June and

DARING AVIATOR AT STATE FAIR

"The Eye that Never Sleeps." Such is the name by which "Amazing Larry" Brown, the boy aviator who is to appear in day and night flights at the Minnesota State Fair, Sept. 3 to 8, is still known by the bandit forces of Francisco Villa.

It was three years ago that Brown gained that title. Carranza, sorely beset by Villa in the ruthless struggle for supremacy in Mexico, sent his representatives to the United States to hire the most daring aviator they could find. Lawrence Brown, 18 years old, of Los Angeles, an intrepid flyer

August for six years. The sparrow is a tenacious creature and will commence rebuilding immediately after each destruction, but if the visits of the warden are properly made the sparrow will not be able to propagate its species, but will spend his time building homes. The result would be the practical extermination of the sparrow in six years, for his life cycle is a little less than five and a half years. The government of the United States could bring about the absolute control of the English sparrow without the killing of one bird and at less expense than is involved in the building of two battleships."

WHAT'S THE REASON?

Many Brainerd People in Poor Health Without Knowing the Cause

There are scores of people who drag out a miserable existence without realizing the cause of their suffering. Day after day they are racked with backache and headache; suffer from nervousness, dizziness, weakness, languor and depression. Perhaps the kidneys have fallen behind in their work of filtering the blood and that may be the root of the trouble. Look to your kidneys, assist them in their work—give them the help they need. You can use no more highly recommended remedy than Doan's Kidney Pills—endorsed by people all over the country and by your neighbors in Brainerd.

Mrs. T. F. Mooney, 209 Gillis St., Brainerd, says: "I have known about Doan's Kidney Pills for some time. I procured this medicine at H. P. Dunn's Drug Store and it certainly was of great benefit to me."

Price 60c at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Mooney had. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.

Are You Lucky?

In August the air is full of pollen and dust that cause trouble for some, yet others are never bothered. No remedy does more to relieve hay fever and asthma than Foley's Honey and Tar Compound for coughs, colds and croup. It clears and soothes the afflicted nose, throat and bronchial tubes. H. P. HOSPITAL SUPPLY SERVICE

Red Cross Selects Stanley Field of Chicago Director.

Washington, Sept. 5.—The establishment of a hospital supply service under the Red Cross commission in France, of which Major Grayson M. P. Murphy is the head, was announced by the war council of the American Red Cross. An appropriation of $500,000 has been voted by the war council to establish this service and provide its first stock of supplies.

Several warehouses are now being established by the Red Cross commission throughout France as a part of the new hospital supply service. Here drugs, medicines and surgical instruments will be available for all hospitals in the department in which the warehouse is located. Orders can be filled promptly without even awaiting approval from Paris.

As director of the new hospital supply service the war council is sending to France Stanley Field of Chicago, a son of the late Marshall Field.

AMERICAN SEAMEN
HELD AS PRISONERS

Washington, Sept. 5.—Captain Albert Oliver of the American tank steamer Campana and four of the five members of the naval gun crew who were taken prisoners when their ship was captured and sunk Aug. 6 by a German submarine are in a prison camp at Brandenburg, Prussia, the American Red Cross was advised by cable from Geneva.

The message made no mention of Seaman William Albert Miller, the other prisoner, and an inquiry has been cabled to Geneva to learn his fate.

The four gunners held by the Germans are James Delaney, chief gunner's mate in charge of the gun crew; Ray Roop, boatswain's mate; Charles Lohan Kline, gunner's mate, and Fred Stephen Jacob, a seaman.

They, with Miller, were the first naval men to be taken prisoner since war was declared on Germany.

It had been feared that they and Captain Oliver had been lost as a French cruiser which picked up the remainder of the tanker's crew reported a U-boat had been sent down that day by another French warship near where the Campana was sunk.

The Campana was forced to surrender because the naval guard exhausted its supply of 180 shells in a four hours' running fight with the submarine.

ATTORNEY GENERAL OF IOWA INDICTED

Red Oak, Ia., Sept. 5.—Within a few hours after Rev. L. G. J. Kelly had been placed on trial for murder in connection with the Villisca (Ia.) ax slaying of 1912, H. M. Havner, attorney general of Iowa, was indicted on a charge of oppression in office for alleged actions during a grand jury investigation of the murders.

Mr. Havner, who is charged in the indictment returned by the Montgomery county grand jury with "willfully and corruptly oppressing a person under color of office," was arrested at his own request and released on $1,000 bond, pending a preliminary hearing.

Indictment of the attorney general overshadowed interest in the trial of Kelly, who is charged in an indictment with the murder of eleven-year-old Lena Stilling, one of the eight persons killed with an ax on the night of June 9, 1912, in the home of Joe B. Moore in Villisca.

AN ELOQUENT ADDRESS

Baker, Mildred and Irma Seeger, Gweneth Taylor, Maisey and Marguerite Carmichael, Dorothy Withington and Ruth Beise.

A group of six girls dressed as Red Cross nurses sang "I'll Show You What I Can Do," a catchy song of the operetta, "The Panorama of Palm Beach," composed by Mrs. Clyde E. Parker. They were repeatedly encored. The girls in the sextette were the Misses Marie Clark, Helen Kleiber, Irene Brockway, Delilah Koop, Lillian Irwin and Norma Brady.

B. J. Broady described the work of the Red Cross in Brainerd and the county and voiced the urgent need of a larger membership in Brainerd in keeping with what was being done on the range. A million and a half sets of knitted goods were needed in France by October 1. Brainerd's quota was 250 sets. There was also an urgent call for surgical dressings.

BOTH SERIOUSLY WOUNDED

Two Men Fight Pistol Duel on Chicago Streets.

Chicago, Sept. 5.—A grievance of the heart is said to have led to a street duel here, in which the two participants fired three shots at each other and both were perhaps fatally wounded.

Frank Susco met Frank Buglio on the street. Without a word each drew a revolver and started firing.

According to the police Buglio forced his daughter, with whom Susco was enamored, to break her engagement with him and marry Leo Buffari, two weeks ago.

RAILROADS ARE PREPARED

Can Move One Million Men in Next Thirty Days.

Washington, Sept. 5.—The railroad war board has assured the war department that the railroads are prepared to move 1,000,000 troops to camps and the seaboard during the next thirty days.

In addition to transporting 687,000 men for the new national army the railroads must move the national guard troops and large numbers of regulars.

The war board also has assured officials that the carriers will facilitate movement of supplies for cantonments for the expanded shipbuilding program, maintain a line of supplies to the thirty-two divisional training camps and other posts and also look after the normal crop movement.

The railroads have given the war board, of which Fairfax Harrison, president of the Southern railway, is chairman, authority to divert trains from passenger to freight service, to change schedules and take off passenger trains where necessary and to take any other steps required to meet the war needs of the government.

STRUGGLING TO UNDO MISCHIEF

The British board of education recently demanded a budget for the coming year of nearly $20,000,000 more than last year's. Both England and France are tightening up on school and child welfare laws and planning to raise their former standards of education. They are devoting this increased amount of money, time and energy to the childhood of their lands in spite of the exceedingly heavy burdens of the war.

What does this mean, and what is its warning to us? When the war broke out, England and France—and other belligerents, too—relaxed their school and other laws concerning children. The little folks were expected to "do their bit" and were put to work in factories or on farms. Their schooling was curtailed. The result was an immediate increase in juvenile delinquency and a decrease in the output of the factories where protection of child workers was abandoned. Much the same condition is said to have existed in Germany. All these countries are now struggling to undo the mischief wrought by their early carelessness.

In the face of this bitter experience of European countries the United States is in danger of making the same mistakes. Through the greed of some employers and the misguided enthusiasm of some patriots comes the attempt to suspend the federal child labor law and to economize in child education. Such economy doesn't pay, and the nation should take heed before irreparable damage has been done.

There are 30,000,000 children under the age of 16 in the country. Some 20,000,000 of them are in school. They form one resource on which we must not draw in any of our war plans, no matter how hard pressed we may be. The most effective use we can make of this vast resource is to care for it and to make of it a strong, healthy, intelligent body of citizens, worthy of the democracy for which we are fighting and able to fulfill its promises.

The marketing of unripe potatoes in order to take advantage of the high price offered has had a tendency to put the market on the decline. The potato crop for this section is very good and reports are from 100 to 500 bushels per acre, the latter estimate being on few fields of the Early Ohio variety which are yielding heavy this year. The price has been $1.00 per bushel but there are those who predict 50 cent potatoes. At any rate the people can depend on getting good spuds this fall in this section at least, something that was not experienced universally last season.

The Little Falls Transcript thinks the dryness of the north country was the cause of the quake on Monday. It might have been the wetness of our down river neighbor coming in contact with the up river dryness that made things crack.

TEUTON VESSELS SHELLING COAST

May Land Troops in the Vicinity of Riga.

RUSSIANS IN FULL RETREAT

Germans Apparently Will Try to Trap Slaves or Turn Their Flank, Thereby Entirely Clearing the Gulf Shore Region—Big Guns Active on Italian Front and in Flanders.

London, Sept. 5.—From Riga to the east of Uxkull the Russians continue in full retreat before the Germans, those from the evacuated port and arsenal making their way northeastward along the coast of the Gulf of Riga and those from Uxkull and vicinity endeavoring to reach the Riga-Pskoff-Petrograd railway line.

Behind them the Russians left Riga partly aflame as the result of the German shells hurled into the town before they departed, while the smoldering ruins of small villages mark the path over which the other contingents have passed.

Along the eastern coast of the Gulf of Riga for about eighty miles north of the evacuated town German warships are shelling various towns, possibly with the intention of covering a landing of troops whose object would be to cut off the retreat of the Riga army or turn its flank, thereby entirely clearing the gulf shore region.

The probable aim also is to give Prince Leopold of Bavaria a base, possibly at Parnau, whence to operate overland in conjunction with the naval forces toward Reval, Russia's principal port on the Gulf of Finland, in an endeavor to seal up the Russian fleet inside the gulf.

Destroy Forts and Bridges.

While the Germans were knocking at the gates of Riga from the west and southwest, hurling shells of all calibers and loosing gas waves against the town, loyal Russian troops held them back long enough to blow up the fortifications at the mouth of the Dvina and raze the bridges over the waterway.

In the Austro-Italian theater the intensive infantry fighting of previous days seemingly has given way for the moment to reciprocal artillery duels of great violence. The cessation in the fighting probably is due to a realignment by the Italians of their battle line after their rapid advance all along the front from Tolmino to the sea.

Field Marshal Haig continues to pound the German positions in Flanders with a rain of shells and another big push against the German lines seems imminent.

Unofficial advices say that behind the German lines in Flanders from Courtrai to Thourout the civilian population has begun an evacuation, realizing the nearness of another British onslaught.

The Germans at several points along the Aisne front and in the Verdun sector again have made ineffectual attempts to pierce the French line.

URGES EXTENSION OF WAR

Education Society Would Fight Allies of Germany.

Washington, Sept. 5.—A statement issued by the Patriotic Education society urges that the United States should declare war immediately on Germany's allies, asserting that the German secret service is relying largely on Austrians and Bulgars for information from this country, and asking "if this is a war of democracy against autocracy how can we maintain friendly relations with the most despotic of the great empires, Austria-Hungary."

The society urges the United States to lend full support in war materials to the great Italian drive through Gorizia.

AGREES TO SEND TROOPS

Von Hindenburg Gives Austrians Two Bavarian Divisions.

Geneva, Sept. 5.—A dispatch from Innsbruck says that, after several urgent appeals, Field Marshal von Hindenburg has consented to send two divisions of Bavarian troops from the Russian to the Isonzo front to strengthen the Austrian defense.

The Skoda factory, the dispatch adds, is working twenty-four hours a day to supply heavy artillery to protect Hermada heights, the key to Trieste.

GERMAN PAPERS GLEEFUL

Declare Riga Will Eternally Remain Teuton.

Copenhagen, Sept. 5.—It is reported from Helsingfors that the Germans are busy mine sweeping the Riga and Finland gulfs and it is expected they will make a naval attack on Petrograd through the Gulf of Finland to assist General von Beseler's land advance.

The German papers comment gleefully on the recapture of this "German city" and declare that with God's help Riga will now eternally remain German.

Home-Reading Course For Our Citizen-Soldiers

(Issued by the War Department and all rights to reprint reserved)

This course of thirty daily lessons is offered to the men selected for service in the National Army as a practical help in getting started in the right way. It is informal in tone and does not attempt to give binding rules and directions. These are contained in the various manuals and regulations of the United States Army, to which this Course is merely introductory.

LESSON NO. 17

STAFF BRANCHES OF THE SERVICE—II

(PRECEDING LESSONS.—1. Your Post of Honor. 2. Making Good as a Soldier. 3. Nine Qualities of a Soldier. 4. Getting Ready for Camp. 5. First Days in Camp. 6. Cleanliness in Camp. 7. Your Health. 8. Marching and Care of Feet. 9. Your Equipment and Arms. 10. Recreation in Camp. 11. Playing the Game. 12. Team Work in the Army. 13. Grouping Men into Teams. 14. The Team Leaders. 15. Fighting arms of the service. 16. Staff Branches of the Service.—I.)

The staff branches reviewed in the preceding lesson the General Staff Corps, Adjutant General's Department, Inspector General's Department, Judge Advocate General's Department, Engineer Corps and Signal Corps. The other three staff branches which all directly touch every soldier are the Medical Department, Quartermaster Corps and Ordnance Department.

The Medical Department works along two distinct lines: First, it tries to keep everyone in the army in good health, and for this purpose keeps close watch of the cleanliness of camps and buildings, of the quality and cooking of food, and of the like; second, it provides ambulances, hospitals, and medical service for the proper care of sick or wounded men. The Medical Department includes the Dental Corps, the Hospital Corps and the Nurse Corps. Its officers are experienced physicians who have passed rigid examinations. Its enlisted men are chiefly engaged in the difficult and often dangerous work of rescuing the wounded and transporting men to field and base hospitals.

Just as every man in the army carries trenching tools so that he may protect himself without the help of the Engineer Corps when necessary, so he also carries a "first-aid packet," so that he may in an emergency perform some of the duties of the Medical Department. Every soldier learns how to give dressing and treatment to his own wounds when he is able to do so, and how to assist wounded comrades until men from the Medical Department arrive.

Medical Department Efficiency

The Medical Department of the American Army is regarded as one of the best in the world. A soldier may feel assured he will receive every possible attention in case of need. The percentage of recoveries from wounds in the hospitals manned by Americans during the European war has been exceptionally high.

The Quartermaster Corps is the business manager of the army. It furnishes food, clothing and most kinds of equipment; provides horses and mules; arranges for transportation; takes charge of money; buys supplies; pays troops; and keeps on hand stores of supplies.

The importance of all this work can hardly be overstated. Napoleon said "An army travels on its belly," meaning that soldiers must be well fed and well supplied if they are to fight effectively. This is even more necessary today than it was in Napoleon's time. In modern warfare the scale of fighting and the quantities of supplies are so tremendous that the duties of the Quartermaster Corps are multiplied beyond any previous experience.

The officers of the Quartermaster

Historic Macao. For many years the Portuguese, through their rulership of Macao, held control of the foreign trade of China, for this was the only safe, friendly port where foreign ships could anchor. Here the merchants of the Honorable East India company, the tea clipper ships from Boston and Salem and the Dutch ships on their way to Nagasaki stopped for supplies, repairs and the news of the world. St. Francis Xavier lived here and from here made his ineffectual efforts to reach the mainland of China. He is buried on a nearby island. Here the first treaty between the United States and China was signed, and here American diplomatic officials lived before they were allowed on Chinese soil. It was here that the first Chinese firecrackers were purchased by American skippers and brought home to start a custom which has endured and endangered a century of Fourth of July—Argonaut.

Dixie's Lano.

The term "Dixie's Land" originated in New York in the early part of the past century. It is said to have come into general use when Texas joined the Union, and the negroes sang of it as "Dixie."

In the popular mythology of New York city Dixie was the negro's paradise on earth in times when slavery and the slave trade were flourishing in that quarter. Dixie owned a tract of land on Manhattan Island, and also a large number of slaves, and his slaves increased faster than his land, an emigration ensued and naturally negroes who left it for distant parts looked to it as a place of unalloyed happiness, and it was the "old Virginia" of the negroes of that day; hence Dixie became synonymous with an ideal locality combining ineffable happiness and every imaginable requisite of earthly beatitude.—Philadelphia Press.

WILSON WELCOMES NEW NATIONAL ARMY

Washington, Sept. 5.—Soldiers of the national army were welcomed into the nation's service by President Wilson with a message of affectionate confidence and a prayer to God to keep and guide them. The message follows:

"You are undertaking a great duty. The heart of the whole country is with you. Everything that you do will be watched with the deepest solicitude, not only by those who are near and dear to you, but by the whole nation besides.

"For this great war draws us all together, makes us all comrades and brothers, as all true Americans felt themselves to be when we first made good our national independence.

"The eyes of the world will be upon you, because you are in some special sense the soldiers of freedom. Let it be your pride, therefore, to show all men not only what good soldiers you are, but also what men you are, keeping yourselves fit and straight in everything and pure and clean through and through.

"Let us set for ourselves a standard so high that it will be a glory to live up to it and add a new laurel to the crown of America.

"My affectionate confidence goes with you in every battle and every test.

"God keep and guide you."

"ONWARD WITH GOD" IS THE KAISER'S LATEST.

Berlin, Sept. 5.—The emperor or has telegraphed Prince Leopold as follows:

"On the occasion of the capture of Riga I express to you and the Eighth army my and the fatherland's congratulations and thanks. Farseeing leadership and steelhard will to victory guaranteed this fine success. Onward with God!"

BOMBS RAINED ON LONDON

German Airplanes Also Raid English Coast Towns.

London, Sept. 5.—German airplanes raided English districts for the third time in as many nights, the enemy machines penetrating as far as London.

According to the official admiralty report no reports of damage had been received.

The statement said there were a considerable number of German machines and that several bombs were dropped along the coast and in the metropolitan district.

B. H. Shadduck, Advance Man of Bromley Evangelistic Party, Has Arrived in City

TABERNACLE NEAR POSTOFFICE

Ministerial Association Holding Meetings Almost Daily Getting the Movement Under Way

B. H. Shadduck, advance man for the Bromley evangelistic party, has arrived in Brainerd and is now in the midst of work for the revival campaign which is planned to begin September 16. Mr. Shadduck has been connected with the evangelist for a number of years and is very enthusiastic in his reports concerning the meetings held during that period.

HENRY W. BROMLEY,
Kentucky Evangelist Coming to Brainerd Sept. 16

The public will have an opportunity of hearing Mr. Shadduck Sunday afternoon in a union service which is to be held in the Methodist church at 3 o'clock. At this time he will present some of the features of the "big drive" the churches are undertaking for the city.

The Ministerial Association has been holding meetings almost daily for the past week getting the movement under way and arranging details for the progress of the work. Wednesday morning the list of guarantors was started for the purpose of underwriting the incidental expenses.

This incidental expense includes the building of a tabernacle seating two thousand in the vacant lots just south from the postoffice where the Chautauqua tent was located. The men who had charge of the canvas report considerable interest and a readiness on the part of nearly every one to back the campaign.

An office has been established in the Y. M. C. A. which will serve as a general clearing house for all information. The advance man is using this room for his office work and a stenographer will be employed for conducting the necessary correspondence. The Northwestern company will install a telephone so that easy communication may be had with the different members of the staff.

The committee chairman are as follows: Tabernacle, F. W. Hill; finance, G. Halvorson; executive, W. J. Lowrie; decoration, G. A. Beale; publicity, R. E. Cody; music, M. L. Hostager; ushers, L. O. UP TO MERCHANTS

Plan for Another Big Market Day and Free Auction Depends on Them

Advertising space on the Market Day and free auction page in local papers is now open and it will be a case of first come, first served. Several have telephoned the secretary and reserved space and in order to have something definite to work on, merchants and business men are urged to make their wants known at once and if they favor the plan, say so. It is impossible to wait upon each merchant and prompt co-operation will be much appreciated.

The last Free Auction and Market Day proved a big success and the one proposed for the last of September can be made equally successful. The time is short in which to give it publicity and arrange details; it is up to the merchants to take hold of the proposition at once. Farmers are anxious for it and will give it their support.

An adjournment had been taken account of Labor Day and also to permit a settlement of the case outside of court.

This afternoon an adjournment was again taken, this time to 9 o'clock Thursday morning at which time it is believed a settlement of the same outside of court will be announced. The jury was excused until that time.

FINE TENNIS TOURNAMENT

One of Most Successful of Central Minnesota, Held at Brainerd on Labor Day

G. H. STONE WINS HIGH HONORS

Wm. C. Deering of Crosby Gave Remarkable Exhibition in Singles and Doubles

The most successful tournament in the history of Central Minnesota tennis was held in Brainerd Labor Day. Although the courts were a trifle heavy and slow due to the rain of the night before, the day itself was ideal for playing, and some very fast tennis was played.

The most spectacular match was the singles contest between Wm. C. Deering of Crosby and G. H. Stone of Brainerd. Both played in excellent form and the game was nip and tuck from start to finish. After losing the first set 5-7, Stone took the other two, and the match, at 13-11, 6-3. The second set was very thrilling as both men played desperately and the outcome was long in doubt. Stone won the finals in singles from Liljendahl of Little Falls, 6-2, 6-3, 6-4.

The doubles matches were not so close, but they were all hard fought. The Crosby team made up of Deering and Garcean defeated both Little Falls and Brainerd. Deering gave quite a remarkable exhibition for he played in two hard doubles matches after his strenuous work in the singles, and he kept his game up to its high standard all through.

There was a very large gallery watching the play. A half dozen automobiles were parked around the courts and other spectators sat along the side lines.

Parties Having Phone Bills, Etc., in Connection With Same Urged to Turn Them In

Parties who have telephone bills or other incidentals paid by themselves in connection with the Red Cross War Fund campaign are urged to turn the same in at the office of the secretary of the Chamber of Commerce, as arrangements will be made to pay these from the general fund.

It is felt that individuals who have given their time and efforts in this campaign should not be called upon to pay these items and it is desired that all be recorded, in order that a detailed statement may be issued on call of the general committee.

HARVEST HOME PICNIC SEPT. 11

To be Given by the Mission Lake Farmers' Club at Dr. J. A. Thabes' Farm

PROGRAM IS BEING ARRANGED

One of Principal Features of the Picnic is the Display of Farm Products, Etc.

(By E. E. Taylor, Secretary Mission Lake Farmers' Club)

The Mission Lake Farmers' club will hold its annual harvest home picnic on Tuesday, Sept. 11th, at the Narrows on Mission lake, about 2 1/2 miles south of Mission postoffice on Dr. Thabes' farm.

The committee is endeavoring to arrange a program that will be worth hearing. There will also be a short program of sports and games for the young folks.

One of the principal features of this picnic in the past has been the display of farm products. The children have a department of their own in which they compete for prizes on products raised in their own gardens, or on articles made by their own hands.

Everybody is invited to come and spend the day with us. Bring your lunch baskets and enjoy a day in the woods. Coffee will be served free.

Parties from the south will reach the ground by taking the Pine River road to a point about one mile north of Dr. Thabes' farm buildings.

GROUND GLASS IN HIS SUGAR

Dean Coventry, superintendent of the Wilcox mine at Woodrow, had an unpleasant experience when tasting sugar in his cup of coffee, his teeth grinding on glass. He went to Brainerd for treatment and a stomach pump applied recovered more glass from his stomach. An investigation is being made of the whole incident.

At the Best Tomorrow

There are many picturesque and moving scenes in the Vitagraph's visualization of Hamlin Garland's novel "The Captain of the Grey Horse Troop," which comes to the Best theatre tomorrow. One of the most touching moments is the glimpse of the Indian wife, Lithe Willow, bowed in grief over the body of her husband, Cut Finer.

Cut Finger killed a settler who attempted to insult Lithe Willow. The unscrupulous settlers, cowmen and herders unite to wipe out the so-called "outrage." When the young Indian is lodged in jail by the Captain of the Grey Horse Troop, George Curtis, to await fair trial, the ruthless pioneers force their way into the prison and kill the redskin.

This is one of the dramatic moments of the photodrama, which reveals the development of the American Indian from early days to the present. "The Captain of the Grey Horse Troop," although a romantic love story of the frontier, is at heart an epic of the redskin. Hamlin Garland knows the Indian much as Frederick Remington the artist, understood him.

YOUNGEST WESTERN UNION MANAGER

JOHN WICKS

John Wicks, of Brainerd, son of William Wicks, has the honor of being the youngest Western Union manager in the state if not in the northwest. John, when 16 years old, was placed in charge of the Willmar office and by attention to business has gained the approval of Willmar people and his employers.

John was an apt pupil of Herbert R. Denzene, manager of the Brainerd office, who has turned out a large number of efficient operators and has the peculiar knack of getting his students to get down to brass tacks and to realize that attention to details paves the way to success and that courtesy and a willingness to work is a prime essential.

Another Denzene graduate is Miss Katherine Thompson, now in charge of the Western Union office at the Spalding hotel, Duluth.

At the Best Tomorrow

"America can well be proud of its history," says Commodore J. Stuart Blackton, head of the Vitagraph Co. "It has always waged war in the interests of humanity. We are entering the great European war solely in the interests of the human race. America can well walk with head upright these days. I have been told some stories by Americans who worked in Belgium feeding the war-stricken natives. The Belgians cheered the United States flag at every opportunity, old men and women kissed the colors fastened to the automobiles distributing the food. Can you imagine how our entry into the war has thrilled and strengthened their hearts in these days of trial?"

"We fought the Spanish-American war for humanity. The United States would not tolerate the Spanish brutality of the Spaniards to the unfortunate Cubans at our very door. So the red and yellow of Spain has disappeared from the New World."

"There is just one blot on our history, our handling of our first Americans, the Indians. Today, I am glad to say, the redskin is to be taught—taught not only grammar and arithmetic, but the principles of agriculture and farming. The degenerate Indian is disappearing and the educated Indian is taking his place."

"In filming 'The Captain of the Grey Horse Troop,' Hamlin Garland's novel, I have sought to present something of the wrongs done to the redskin. Mr. Garland's romance tells the development of the Indian from primeval days to modern days. It has splendid historical sweep."

"We feel in 'The Captain of the Grey Horse Troop' that we are revealing the real Indian on the screen for the first time. Mr. Garland, who knows his Indian thoroughly, personally supervised the making. It is, I am sure, absolutely accurate."

"The Captain of the Grey Horse Troop" comes to the Best theatre tomorrow. Antonio Moreno and Edith Storey are featured in the production, which is a Blue Ribbon feature. Others in the cast are Mrs. Bradbury, Otto Lederer, Al Jennings, Neola May, Robert Burns, Edward Cecil and H. A. Burrows. The novel was adapted to the screen by A. Van Buren Powell and directed by William Wolbert.

There was a record attendance present and the game was one which pleased the fans.

WASHINGTON REPORTED NO EARTHQUAKE TREMOR

moved and window panes rattled, he said.

Several boys playing in a park on the south side of Minneapolis, told their parents late yesterday that they had "felt the ground wiggle," but no attention was paid to the story until after the published account of the earthquake.

Frank Reidel, A. O. McCormick, Herman Skeldon and Frank Talbot of Minneapolis, who were fishing in Fishtrap lake, near Staples, returned with an earthquake story to add to the tale of the big one that got away. Vibrations shook their cottage until the stove pipe fell down and waves rocked the fishing boat as subterranean rumblings were heard.

Scientists of the University of Minnesota today studied the reports of the earthquake and some of the faculty members will go over the ground of what is said to be the state's first earth tremor.

The heaviest quake centered around Staples, but several towns reported shocks. No damage resulted except broken dishes and windows. The quake was freakish and lasted half a minute. It was a surprise to the geologists and Professor O. J.

shocks and then a heavy jar were felt at Pequot. Everybody inside a Pequot house fled for the outside. At L. J. Nelson's farm in Maple Grove township 10 miles west of Pequot, assured can be seen in the ground.

Ben Olson was fishing in Gladstone lake and the waves rolled as the shock came. Hundreds of fish fled past his boat swimming along scared to death. Bennie was too good a fisherman to miss that and caught all the bass the law allowed.

It seemed many of the fish would rather connect with a hook than stay in the deep which had acted so peculiarly.

Truck Buyers Attention

The new Model T 1918 Ford Ton Truck Chassis is on exhibition in our show room. After experimenting five years on a truck, Henry Ford has finally put on the market a guaranteed one ton truck which sells for $600. If you are interested in a truck for any purpose, whatsoever, do not fail to look at this wonderful chassis. We will gladly demonstrate it's carrying power to any one interested. The fact that Henry Ford has put his guarantee behind this proposition should be sufficient evidence of it's merit.

FAVORS WAGING VIGOROUS WAR

American Bar Association Goes on Record.

DEFERS ALL OTHER BUSINESS

Resolutions Pledge Unqualified Loyalty to Government, Express Belief Future Freedom and Security of the Country Depend on Defeat of Germany and Endorse Sending American Troops to Europe.

Saratoga Springs, N. Y., Sept. 5.—The American Bar association, at the opening of its annual meeting here, deferred all other business until it had adopted by a unanimous rising vote resolutions expressing approval of vigorous prosecution of the war and had set in motion plans designed to marshal to the aid of the country lawyers who are members of national, state or local associations.

The resolutions, which were offered by Elihu Root, were adopted amid scenes of enthusiasm.

The association recorded its absolute and unqualified loyalty to the government; expressed its belief that the future freedom and security of the country depend on the defeat of Germany; urged the most vigorous possible prosecution of the war; endorsed the plan to send American troops, however raised, to Europe, and condemned as pro-German all attempts in and out of congress to hinder and embarrass the carrying on of the war "under whatever cover of pacifism or technicality such attempts are made."

In a report of the executive committee, which was adopted without a dissenting vote, it was recommended that proposals be sent to state and local bar associations requesting them to undertake the following work:

"To give assistance to those entering federal service and to exemption boards to conserve the practice of lawyers entering such service; to give relief, where not otherwise provided for to the families of lawyers engaged in the service; to assist the federal and state authorities in all activities in connection with the war, including furnishing capable public speakers for the promotion of patriotism and patriotic endeavor."

THIRTEEN SUFFRAGE PICKETS ARRESTED

Washington, Sept. 5.—Thirteen militants of the Women's party were arrested when they attempted to "pick-et" the White House.

After the police had escorted away several groups of banner bearers the demonstration was abandoned.

All the prisoners were released on bond. The Women's party headquarters announced that Justice Robb of the District supreme court, who recently has granted appeals to sixteen banner bearers sentenced to pay fines or serve thirty days in the workhouse, had informed their counsel that no more appeals will be allowed while the sixteen are pending.

PRESIDENT LEADS MARCH OF DRAFTED

Washington, Sept. 5.—The vanguard of the national army was honored throughout the country with demonstrations to celebrate the eve of departure of the first drafted men to the cantonments. Typifying the spirit of the nation in sending forth its sons to battle for democracy the capital gave itself over to a great public demonstration, in which President Wilson, congress and all heads of government were leaders. The place of honor in a procession to the White House was reserved for the 1,400 drafted men, comprising the District of Columbia's first contribution to the national army.

Led by President Wilson the national army men marched between lines of cheering thousands, bidding them Godspeed on the first steps of their journey to France.
